Notification

Subject: Regarding Payment for Admission in PG and Other Programs

This is to inform all concerned that if the payment receipt for admission into PG and other programs is not generated, it indicates that no payment has been received by the University for the admission. In such cases, the concerned applicant is not considered admitted and is advised to make the payment again to complete the admission process.

If, for any reason, the University receives the admission fees more than once, the excess amount will be refunded after verification.
